

A DECADE OF CHANGE

A LOOK BACK AT HIGHLIGHTS AND MILESTONES OF YEARS PAST

1998

$12,000 RAISED

- First-ever Porthole Golf Classic is held at the Silver Course at Doral, Country Club in memory of Linie Hilderink, who passed away on July 18, 1996.
- Approximately 75 in attendance

1999

$43,000 RAISED
$55,000 TO DATE

- Second-annual event is held at the Biltmore Golf Course, Coral Gables.
- United Way is added as a beneficiary.

2000

$92,000 RAISED
$147,000 TO DATE

- Third-annual event is held at the Great White Course, shortly after it opened at Doral Country Club.

CHANGE

AND MILESTONES OF YEARS PAST

2001

$133,000 RAISED
$280,000 TO DATE

- Fourth-annual event is held at the Great White Course, Doral Country Club.
- Golf tournament sells out, and has ever since.
- Lung cancer funding is added in memory of Sherry Sbarsky, who passed away on June 13, 2000.

Sherry Sbarsky
Former Porthole columnist

2002

$80,000 RAISED
$360,000 TO DATE

- Fifth-annual event is moved to the Westview Country Club in Miami, where it has been held ever since.
- Porthole* Children's Fund is established to benefit local agencies that aid children and families of South Florida.

2003

$78,500 RAISED
$438,500 TO DATE

- Sixth-annual event
- The Taylor Breast Health Center purchases a rolloscope, a motorized viewbox that allows radiologists to expedite throughput time of patients and improves visualization of calcification and dense tissue.
- The 78th Highlanders of Nova Scotia perform traditional bagpipe music in full regalia, courtesy of Parks Canada and the Halifax Citadel Regimental Association.

Linie Hilderink
Irene Panoff's sister

2004
$100,000 RAISED
$538,500 TO DATE

Lucky Seven theme

- Seventh-annual event
- The half-million-dollar mark is surpassed.
- The Taylor Breast Health Center purchases two more new roloscopes.
- UM/Sylvester invests in two of the most important aspects of the cancer center: research and recruitment.

2005
$130,000 RAISED
$668,500 TO DATE

Diamond in the Rough theme

- Eighth-annual event
- The Taylor Breast Health Center purchases yet another new roloscope.
- The Porthole Children's Fund is distributed to the Hurwit Crisis Nursery and the Children's Psychiatric Center.

2006
$125,500 RAISED
$794,000 TO DATE

Asian theme

- Ninth-annual event
- Jackson Memorial Hospital's Taylor Breast Health Center purchases a DynaCAD software system, which assists doctors when reading breast MRI studies.
- UM/Sylvester physicians are engaged in 200 clinical trials, which funds are helping to support.
- Porthole Children's funds are distributed to the Hurwit Crisis Nursery and the United Way Center for Excellence in Early Education.

2007
$156,250 RAISED
$950,250 TO DATE

Moulin Rouge theme

- Tenth-annual event
- The Taylor Breast Health Center pursues the purchase of Digi View system, an automated system for X-raying breast specimens.
- The University of Miami trustees approve the funding to create a new multi-specialty practice building that will rise next to UM/Sylvester over the next four years, providing 850,000 square feet of new space for patient clinics, surgery, and support.
- A portion of proceeds are donated to the University of Miami Cardiovascular Center, in honor of Deborah Natansohn, an extraordinary member of the cruise industry.
- Diamonds International launches the Linie pendant to raise funds for breast cancer treatment and research.

2008
11TH ANNUAL PORTHOLE GOLF CLASSIC SURPASSES THE $1 MILLION MARK. (GOAL $1.1 MILLION)

African theme

- Porthole redirects their Children's Fund to FCCA.

Deborah Natansohn
 Former Seabourn president

To Sum It Up

- Jackson Memorial Foundation received a total of $492,140 for its Taylor Breast Health Center over a 10-year period.
- United Way received a total of $208,610 over a 9-year period.
- UM/Sylvester received a total of $249,500 over a 7-year period.
- Proceeds presented together with the 2008 check are:
 Cruising for a Cure – $5,000
 Linie Pendant Sales – $6,000
- After event costs are paid, 65% of gross revenue of the Porthole Golf Classics has gone directly to the beneficiaries.

